

MN3 Consulting Team

Jennifer Milo
President/CEO

MN3 Consulting President Jennifer Milo attributes Title IX for all her athletic success and ability to climb the ladder professionally in the world of intercollegiate athletic administration. Jennifer has been working with Title IX legislation since beginning her professional career in 2000.

Prior to consulting fulltime, Jennifer Milo was Cal State San Marcos' fourth Director of Athletics from 2012-February 2024. As Director of Athletics Milo served as Deputy Title IX Coordinator for the Department of Athletics. Under her leadership, the CSUSM Department of Athletics experienced unprecedented growth and success. Milo was a mainstay at CSUSM since 2005. Originally hired to be the school's inaugural softball coach in October 2005.

Milo earned her Master of Arts in College Counseling and Student Services concurrently with her coaching career at USD. From 1993-97, Milo played four seasons of intercollegiate softball during her undergraduate studies at USD and had her jersey number 44 retired upon her departure from USD.

Title IX Certifications:

- Title IX ATIXA Training & Certifications for Jennifer Milo:
- Title IX Compliance & Athletics Certification (Higher Education & K-12)
- Investigation Foundations for Higher Education Certification
- Title IX Fundamentals for Higher Education Training
- Title IX Compliance Essentials for K-12 Education Certification
- Title IX Investigator Foundations for K-12 Education Certification
- Title IX Decision-Making for Higher Education Certification